October Events

Old Time Saturday October 4

Old Time Saturday "Hayrides to the Mansion" will have a new Chair this year as Mary Helen White who created and chaired this event so effectively is off to Montana on mission trip. Go girl.

To date we need a Chairman for this event. Mary Helen has notes so it will be an easy job to take over. Of course, the Committee needs volunteers. Please call Helen Gray and have fun at a great event. Watch the Standard Banner for times.

November 1—Antiques Appraisal Fair

APTA will be hosting an Antiques Appraisal Fair at the APTA headquarters in

Storytelling at the Mansion October 25

Featuring
Cuz and Jan
"Smoky Mountain Storytellers"

Cuz tells traditional tales, Jack Tales, Appalachian Tales, family stories, original and humorous stories. As one of 15 siblings, he shares tales of his traditional upbringing in the Smoky Mountains.

Janice enjoys writing and has had several short stories published. Two of her plays have been produced.

Nashville. The Fair will be held in the Belle Meade Carriage House from 10:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m.. Certified appraisers will be on hand to make verbal appraisals. A reasonable fee will be charged.

Bill Barton, of Dennis-Barton Architecture, is chairman of this event and Cherrie Hall (615-356-0949), former Executive Director of the APTA, is organizing volunteers. Statewide chapter participation is needed to make this a successful event.

This is a fund raiser for the APTA so the state office will be able to better serve the chapters.

She enjoys sharing her life's education by telling traditional, personal, wonder tales, and the occasional tall tale. Of course for October she will tell a ghost story or two.

Jan and Cuz have performed at Dollywood, Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Jack Tale Theatre, the Inn at Blackberry Farm, Knoxville Storytelling Festival, and Heritage Festivals in TN, NY, KY and Va., several TV and radio performances.

Don't miss this fun filled family evening.

Cookbook

The Glenmore Cook book is on its way to the printers. Thanks everyone who submitted recipes.

We anticipate having the Cookbook available at the Ellenberry Tea, on November 9.

The book is full of many wonderful recipes and we want you to have them for the Holidays.

Ellenberry Tea

Sunday, November 9 will be the Ellenberry Tea. We were unable to hold it last year do to the porch reconstruction.

This is a lovely way to spend a Sunday afternoon in November. A time to catch your breath after a busy Summer and Fall, a before you head into the Holiday Season.

Ms Ellen McClung Berry was so important to Glenmore and the APTA that it is only right that we take time to celebrate the memory of this fine lady.

The Ellenberry Tea is a good time to invite a special person to tea. A great way to tell your co workers and friends thank you . We look forward to seeing you November 9.

Christmas at Glenmore

The Chapter is in need of a Decorating Chairman for "Christmas at Glenmore" The decorations are at Glenmore, all organized by room. A Refreshment Chairman is also needed.

Christmas at Glenmore is a wonderful event that is held the first two weekends in December. Glenmore is at her very best in Christmas finery.

Please call Helen Gray and offer to take one of these two positions.

An Editorial

Helen Gray has been wearing two major hats (plus many others) for the last two years. She was serving as president of the Glenmore Chapter and Vice-President of the state organization, when the APTA president was unable to fulfill her term due to illness. Helen assumed the position of President of the APTA in late 2001. In May of 2002 she was elected to the position of State President and will serve until 2004. At this time, she is also Acting President of the Glenmore Chapter. Somehow she has managed to do an excellent job of both positions, even while seeing to her family and extended family's needs. Helen lost her only sister in June of this year and then in July had to spend a week in the hospital getting her medication adjusted. so that when she "has time" she can get her knee repaired. (Arthritis came to visit after Christmas 2002 and stayed)

It is time for the membership of this organization to step forward and help carry the burden of preserving the only house museum in Jefferson County and one of the finest examples of Victorian architecture in the Southeast United States.

There are many of you who have the skills and the ability to serve on the Board of Directors of Glenmore. Please step forward and join in this worthwhile effort and help continue the work of the charter members of this fine organization.

Call Jane Lowe and discuss with her the various positions that are open. I am sure there is one that is just right for you. Glenmore needs your assistance now. Janet McLane, Editor

From our Membership/Tour Chair—Joan Conkin

Glenmore Gardens

Deborah's Garden

Master Gardeners, Debi Stevenson and Kenneth Lawson have been cleaning and refurbishing Deborah's Garden.

Stevenson and Lawson have a wonderful vision of adding several gardens to the Glenmore grounds and holding annual Glenmore Garden Tours.

This is a very exciting idea and will be a wonderful addition to the Glenmore experience. If you are interested in being involved in this project please contact Debi Stevenson at 423-317-0202

Herb Garden

The Garden Thyme Herb Society has established and are maintaining an herb garden on the right of the Smoke House.

They also maintain the herb gardens at Crockett Tavern and The Rose Center in Morristown.

If you are interested in joining this group they meet the last Monday of each month at the Rose Center. It is a great way to learn more about herbs and their uses.

To help at the Glenmore garden call Jo Hatfield at 865-993-2815
